Numbers for the pre-Symposium and post-Symposium trips are limited to 50 people, so please book (and pay!) early if you want to confirm your attendance to these trips.

Participants are responsible for booking their own accommodation either in Alcalá de Henares or Madrid during the time of the meeting.

Please note that titles of your presentations will be included in the programme and published in the Symposium volume only if the registration fee has been paid.

Payment of fees must be made by International Money Transfer before March 1st. Later payments –and on-site registration– will be increased by 40 Euro per item, including field trips but excluding the conference dinner.

Please send payments (including any possible bank charges at the receiving end) to the following account:
